For milk cows and fattening stock of all kinds, nothing is better than sugar corn. One acre of it will go as far as three of corn. For pure seed go to Geo.
W. Stuart's.

UP-TO-DATE.—Tom Crawford is strictly up-to-date in the tonsorial line and you will not regret having him or his assistants wait on you when you want a clean shave or a hair cut. He employs none but white barbers.

CENTENNIAL

Celebration at Cane Ridge Church a Noted Event.

The closing hours of the Kentucky State convention of the Christian churches was moved Friday by a remarkable demonstration of an outpouring of people seldom equaled in the history of Bourbon county. Over 6,000 visitors were present at the historic old Cane Ridge church, seven miles from this city, under the same trees that sheltered Alexander Campbell, Barton W. Stone, John I. Rogers and scores of other noted divines years ago. The latter day orators of the Christian church in thrilling addresses revived the past and the present and prophesied the future of a great body.

Early in the morning vehicles began the journey to the noted grounds, and a constant stream of conveyances lined the road from Paris and other points to old Cane Ridge. At 10 o'clock, when Elder J. B. Briney, of Moberly, Mo., arose to begin his address on "Cane Ridge" and the dawn of the reformation, he was confronted by an audience estimated by conservative parties to number at least 5,000. Elder Briney's address was chiefly reminiscent, treating of the history of the great religious movement and the great meeting of 1801, of which the celebration that day was the centennial anniversary, though three years over due.

Elder Briney's address occupied fifty minutes, he being followed by Rev. A.
B. Philpott, of Indianapolis, Ind., in a splendid oration on "Our Movement at the Dawn of the Twentieth Century." President B. A. Jenkins, of Kentucky University, followed in a characteris-tically able address on the "Dawn of the Future." Volunteer speeches reminiscent of the past glory of the church were made by various visitors, after an adjournment was taken.

In the beautiful grove adjacent to the church the ladies of the various country churches had spread a royal repast sufficient to have fed an army and then have some left over. The dinner and benediction closed the day's proceedings. Before leaving the grounds each visitor was presented with a souvenir in the shape of a small bunch of cane which suggested to Boone and his frontier companions the name of Cane Ridge.

MILLINERY.—The ladies of Paris and Bourbon county are invited to attend the fall millinery opening of Mrs.
Cornay Watson Baird, which will take place on Saturday, Oct. 3d. She will have all the very latest designs in millinery and fancy goods. She has engaged the services of Miss Grace Thomas, as trimmer, this season, who thoroughly understands the business in every respect.

I WILL open my fresh meat market, Saturday, Oct. 3d, and will have on hand a full line of fresh meats, such as beef, pork, beef liver, pork sausage, etc.
Phone 11. J. R. ADAIR.

LIVE STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—Yearling mules are selling at an average of $70 in Boyle county.

—T. P. Wadell, of Millersburg, shipped Friday, 500 dressed chickens and 25 cases of eggs.

—Jas. Lawson, one of Hancock's very best farmers, last year produced about 11,000 pounds of tobacco on eight acres.
This year he has in cultivation thirteen acres and believes he will have 18,000 pounds.—Hawesville Plaindealer.

—The first hoghead of the new tobacco crop that arrived on the breaks at Louisville was received at the Kentucky Warehouse, Saturday. The tobacco was raised by Wm. Shufflett, of Green county, and will be offered at the auction sale this week.

—Adair & Ewalt, of Paris, sold to Bruce G. Hubbard, of Flint, Mich., 8 head of Shorthorn cows and calves of Young May and Desdemonia families at $150 per head. Also to Henry Barrett, of Henderson, Ky., one Shorthorn bull calf and three heifers of Young May and Lantha families, at $50 per head.
To Col. E. F. Clay, of Paris, one bull calf—Amelia family—at $50.

CHURCH CHIMES.

—Kentucky synod, Southern Presbyterians, will meet Oct. 13, at Cynthiana.

—Cynthiana has entertained Kentucky conference three times since the Civil War.

—The Woman's Home Missionary annual meeting of Kentucky conference will be held at Carlisle, Oct. 27-30.

—Elder Gano Buckner commenced a protracted meeting at the Christian church at Leesburg, last Friday night.

—H. J. Derick will speak at the Christian church, this evening at 7 o'clock, on "The Mountain People and Mountain Work."

—A protracted meeting will begin next Thursday evening at Palmer's school house. Rev. Jos. Hopper will preach each evening.

—Rev. Jos. Hopper will begin a series of meetings at the Second Presbyterian church, in this city next week, preparatory to communion services, which will be held on Sunday week.

—Next Sunday will be Sunday School rally day at the Second Presbyterian church in this city. Parents are requested to come with their children. There will be a brief address by Mr. Hopper before the sermon.
